

Women's Law

---

Association of Ontario

WHO SAID THERE'S NO FREE LUNCH?

Monday, March 2, 2015

As part of the Women's Law Association of Ontario's 95th birthday celebrations, President Ronda Bessner is coming to Windsor.

Come and learn about the WLAO and best practices for career and profile management as a legal professional.

Professor Bessner has served on 5 Public Inquiries – the Ipperwash Inquiry, Walkerton Inquiry, Toronto Computer Leasing Inquiry, the Cornwall Inquiry and the Royal Commission on the Blood System in Canada as Senior Legal Analyst. Ronda was Counsel to the Ontario Law Reform Commission where she authored reports on Child Witnesses, Drug and Alcohol Testing in the Workplace, Provincial Offences and co-authored Damages for Environmental Harm. She is an adjudicator on the Consent and Capacity Board of Ontario.

Don't miss it!

Date: Monday, March 2, 2015

Time: 12 noon – 1:30 pm

Location: Windsor Law School

This event is Free of charge. Light lunch included. Space limited.

Register no later than February 23, 2015 by email to wlaocogeco.ca.

Application for CLE credit pending (but not guaranteed).

Inquiries can be addressed to WLAO or Avril A. Farlam, Barat Farlam Katzman.