EXPERIENCING DIVORCE THROUGH THE EYES OF A CHILD

Facilitators: to be announced

Join us for Dinner and Round Table conversation that centers on the various types of dispute resolution approaches that resolve issues for the breakdown of families. This discussion will focus on the best ways to understand the viewpoint of a child, as seen and explained by adult children of divorce. Understanding the unique aspects of the continuum of ADR services available to families is essential in order to assist families to determine which process would be best for them.

Price $25
