SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE
SOUTHWEST REGION
2017 COURT CALENDAR

DIVISIONAL COURT

Divisional Court Sittings (London)

Panel – All Divisional Court matters to be heard by a three judge panel will be heard in the regional centre of London during the one week commencing Monday, April 3, and one week commencing Monday, November 27, 2017

Single Judge – All Division Court matters to be heard before a single judge of the Divisional Court, including Small Claims Court appeals will be heard in the local centre and are scheduled through the Trial Coordinator for Superior Court.

CHATHAM-KENT

All of the timelines specified in the existing Criminal Proceedings Rules, the Family Law Rules, and the Rules of Civil Procedure are to be strictly adhered to without exception.

Divisional Court

Panel - All Divisional Court matters to be heard by a three judge panel will be heard in the regional centre of London during the one week commencing Monday, April 3, and one week commencing Monday, November 27, 2017.

Single Judge – All Divisional Court matters to be heard before a single judge of the Divisional Court, including Small Claims Court appeals will be heard in the local centre and are scheduled through the Trial Coordinator for Superior Court.

The trial sittings have been designated in blocks of CRIMINAL and CIVIL:

Criminal

All criminal cases will be committed to an Assignment Court date in the Superior Court of Justice and shall be pre-tried prior to that Assignment Court. At the Assignment Court, a sufficient number of JURY cases will be assigned to the commencement of an appropriate sitting for jury selection and trial on a Running List basis. All NON-JURY cases will be assigned to a Running List within an appropriate sitting. If applicable, guilty pleas can be arranged through the Trial Coordinator.

Request for adjournments of trials require written application/motions with supporting affidavit. These applications/motions can be returnable at the commencement of the sittings before the trial judge or in advance of the sittings before the local administrative judge.

A Trial Readiness Court will be conducted by the presiding trial judge at the commencement of the trial sittings. Counsel are to confirm their readiness for trial by completing and filing a Trial Readiness Report no later than three business days prior to the Trial Readiness Court unless otherwise directed by the Trial Coordinator. Counsel or self-represented accused conducting a case shall appear in the Trial Readiness Court unless all counsel and self-represented accused have not changed their position from the position described in the most recent Pre-trial Conference Report, have complied with all filing requirements, and have completed and filed a Trial Readiness Report.

Criminal and Civil Trial Courts

The CRIMINAL and CIVIL TRIAL COURTS are run with continuous sittings. The Trial Coordinator, in conjunction with the Administrative Justice, will schedule the required courts based on the judicial complement assigned each week.

All CRIMINAL cases will be committed to an Assignment Court date in the Superior Court of Justice at which time a pre-trial and trial date will be assigned. The Trial Readiness Court will be held on the Wednesday preceding the scheduled trial date. Counsel are to confirm their readiness for trial by completing and filing a Trial Readiness Report no later than three business days prior to the Trial Readiness Court unless otherwise directed by the Trial Coordinator.

Counsel or self-represented accused in a case are required to attend the Trial Readiness Court, unless otherwise directed by the Trial Coordinator.

All CIVIL cases will be called to an Assignment Court and assigned a pre-trial and/or a trial date. Trial dates are assigned to a Weekly Running List. Simplified Procedure trials are scheduled through the Trial Coordinator with Counsel at the completion of the pre-trial if the case is deemed ready for trial.

Requests for adjournments of trials require written application/motions with supporting affidavit. These applications/motions are to be made returnable in advance of the assigned scheduled sittings before the local administrative judge on a date provided by the Trial Coordinator.

Requests for adjournments of pre-trials also require a motion returnable before the local administrative judge on a date provided by the Trial Coordinator unless the rescheduled pre-trial date is at least ninety (90) days before the trial date.

Family Law matters are scheduled through the London Family Court Branch – please refer to London – Family Court

Rota Court

A Justice is assigned WEEKLY to preside over the ROTA COURT, which is scheduled as follows:

- Mondays: Special Appointments (Long Civil Motions)
- Tuesdays: Civil Litigation Short Motions
- Wednesdays: Special Appointments (Long Civil Motions)
- Thursdays: Civil Pre-trials
- Fridays: Civil Pre-trials & Special Appointments (Long Motions)
- Monday to Friday: Criminal Pre-trials at 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

*Bail Reviews, Summary Conviction Appeals, Criminal Motions and Bail Estreatments are scheduled on an as needed / requested basis.

Civil Motions Court

- Short civil motions court will be opened at 9:15 a.m. for adjournments and the scheduling and timetabling of long civil motions (Special Appointments) if on consent and will otherwise convene at 10:00 a.m. A Court Reporter will be available at 11:30 a.m. for any short civil motion which involves a self-represented litigant. Any motion or application that requires more than 30 minutes (long civil motions) will be adjourned to a special appointment date – see Consolidated Provincial Practice Direction issued by Chief Justice of the Superior Court; and Consolidated Practice Direction for Southwest Region

LONDON - FAMILY COURT

All of the timelines specified in the Family Law Rules are to be strictly adhered to without exception.

The FAMILY COURT sits in London on a continuous basis. The Family Court Trial Coordinator, in conjunction with the Administrative Justice of the Family Court, will schedule the required courts based on the judicial complement assigned each week. The following is a brief outline:

Case Management Rota Court:

- Mondays: Conferences
- Tuesdays: Family Law Act Conferences & First Appearance Courts
- Wednesdays: Unconfirmed & Consent Motions List and Argued Motions List
- Thursdays: Children's Aid Society [First Appearance Courts & Conferences (Settlement & Trial Management Conferences)]
- Fridays: Children's Aid Society Temporary Custody Motions & Summary Matters

CAS FINAL ORDERS: Direction from Justice Henderson, LAJ

The Family Bench is changing the procedure in respect of Final Orders based on a Statement of Agreed Facts, currently heard on Thursdays. Commencing Thursday, September 10, 2015, material for a Final Order shall be filed in the court office by the Tuesday before (i.e commencing September 8, 2015). The material, if in draft form, is to be placed in the file but not inserted in the Continuing Record. The draft material shall be returned upon the court either receiving a signed SAF or affidavit of the worker or if the matter is not proceeding on this basis. If the material has not been filed, the matter will be adjourned at the discretion of the judge. In the meantime, each individual judge will be handling these matters as they see fit.

Trial Management Conferences are mandatory in every case once on a trial list, unless completed Trial Scheduling Endorsement Forms have been filed and a judge specifically dispenses with a trial management conference. The trial management conference will be heard 1 to 2 weeks prior to trial. The purpose of a trial management conference is outlined in section 17.6 of the Family Law Rules.

Motions Court and Argued Motions will be held on Wednesdays. Argued Motions exceeding 60 minutes maximum for all parties will require a special motions appointment from the Trial Coordinator of the Family Court.

- See Consolidated Provincial Practice Direction issued by Chief Justice of the Superior Court; and Consolidated Practice Direction for Southwest Region

Trial Scheduling

Trials will be scheduled into a 3-week trial sitting block. Each week two to three judges will be scheduled to hear trials from this running list during the 3-week sittings. Approximately 30 matters will be scheduled for each 3-week trial sittings block regardless of length, which may be adjusted by the local administrative judge, as needed. Counsel and the parties must be prepared to attend with their witnesses for trial when called at any time during the 3-week block.

All Trial Records are to be filed according to the Rules and cases may be struck from the trial sittings if the Trial Record is not filed by this date.

Trial Readiness Court – On the Tuesday prior to commencement of the trial block, all the cases scheduled for trial in the next Sittings will be called to a Trial Readiness Court.

Any trials not reached in a trial block will be given priority on the next trial sittings block or Counsel and/or the parties may select another Trial Sittings.

Adjournments of Trials

- Any adjournments of a FLA case or child protection case must be made at the Trial Readiness Court on the Tuesday prior to the trial sitting on notice to the other party.

Any request for an adjournment at the Trial Readiness Court shall be supported by affidavit material that explains why the trial is not ready to proceed.

All of the timelines specified in the existing Criminal Proceedings Rules, the Family Law Rules, and the Rules of Civil Procedure are to be strictly adhered to without exception.

Divisional Court

Panel - All Divisional Court matters to be heard by a three judge panel will be heard in the regional centre of London during the one week commencing Monday, April 3, and one week commencing Monday, November 27, 2017.

Single Judge – All Divisional Court matters to be heard before a single judge of the Divisional Court, including Small Claims Court appeals will be heard in the local centre and are scheduled through the Trial Coordinator for Superior Court.

The trial sittings have been designated in blocks of CRIMINAL, CIVIL AND FAMILY:

Criminal

All criminal cases will be committed to an Assignment Court date in the Superior Court of Justice and shall be pre-tried prior to that Assignment Court. At the Assignment Court, a sufficient number of JURY cases will be assigned to the commencement of an appropriate sitting for jury selection and trial on a Running List basis. All NON-JURY cases will be assigned to a Running List within an appropriate sitting. If applicable, guilty pleas can be arranged through the Trial Coordinator.

Request for adjournments of trials require written application/motions with supporting affidavit. These applications/motions can be returnable at the commencement of the sittings before the trial judge or in advance of the sittings before the local administrative judge.

A Trial Readiness Court will be conducted by the presiding trial judge at the commencement of the trial sittings. Counsel are to confirm their readiness for trial by completing and filing a Trial Readiness Report no later than three business days prior to the Trial Readiness Court unless otherwise directed by the Trial Coordinator. Counsel or self-represented accused conducting a case shall appear in the Trial Readiness Court unless all counsel and self-represented accused have not changed their position from the position described in the most recent Pre-trial Conference Report, have complied with all filing requirements, and have completed and filed a Trial Readiness Report.

Criminal & Civil Trial Sitzings, Weekly Trials and Pre-trials

Judicial complement assigned each week as follows:

The criminal and civil trial courts are run with continuous sittings. The Trial Coordinator, in conjunction with the Administrative Judge, will schedule the required courts based on the judicial complement assigned each week.

All criminal cases will be committed to an Assignment Court date in the Superior Court of Justice at which time the pre-trial will be set. Cases are returned to an Assignment Court following the pre-trial, to set a trial date.

Trial Readiness Court will be the Assignment Court preceding the scheduled trial date.

Counsel are to confirm their readiness for trial by completing and filing a Trial Readiness Report no later than three business days prior to the Trial Readiness Court unless otherwise directed by the Trial Coordinator. Counsel or self-represented accused conducting a case shall appear in the Trial Readiness Court unless all counsel and self-represented accused have not changed their position from the position described in the most recent Pre-trial Conference Report, have complied with all filing requirements, and have completed and filed a Trial Readiness Report.

Counsel is asked to contact the Trial Coordinator to confirm the date of the Assignment Court and to ensure the matter is added to the list.

All civil cases will be scheduled for pre-trial through the Trial Coordinator's Office. Trial dates will be set at the pre-trial by the presiding Judge unless there are unique or special scheduling accommodations. Trials will be assigned to a Weekly Running List.

Request for adjournments of trials require written application/motions with supporting affidavit. These applications/motions should be scheduled with the trial coordinator and returnable on Wednesday mornings, before the local administrative judge, in advance of the sittings or alternatively, at the commencement of the sittings before the trial judge.

Case Management Rota Schedule

- Monday: All day – Case Management (Civil Pre-Trials & Civil Case Conferences)

WOODSTOCK/OXFORD

All of the timelines specified in the existing Criminal Proceedings Rules, the Family Law Rules, and the Rules of Civil Procedure are to be strictly adhered to without exception.

Divisional Court

Panel - All Divisional Court matters to be heard by a three judge panel will be heard in the regional centre of London during the one week commencing Monday, April 3, and one week commencing Monday, November 27, 2017.

Single Judge – All Divisional Court matters to be heard before a single judge of the Divisional Court, including Small Claims Court appeals will be heard in the local centre and are scheduled through the Trial Coordinator for Superior Court.

The trial sittings have been designated in blocks of CRIMINAL, CIVIL AND FAMILY:

Criminal

All criminal cases will be committed to an Assignment Court date in the Superior Court of Justice and shall be pre-tried prior to that Assignment Court. At the Assignment Court, a sufficient number of JURY cases will be assigned to the commencement of an appropriate sitting for jury selection and trial on a Running List basis. All NON-JURY cases will be assigned to a Running List within an appropriate sitting. If applicable, guilty pleas can be arranged through the Trial Coordinator.

Request for adjournments of trials require written application/motions with supporting affidavit. These applications/motions can be returnable at the commencement of the sittings before the trial judge or in advance of the sittings before the local administrative judge.

A Trial Readiness Court will be conducted by the presiding trial judge at the commencement of the trial sittings. Counsel are to confirm their readiness for trial by completing and filing a Trial Readiness Report no later than three business days prior to the Trial Readiness Court unless otherwise directed by the Trial Coordinator. Counsel or self-represented accused conducting a case shall appear in the Trial Readiness Court unless all counsel and self-represented accused have not changed their position from the position described in the most recent Pre-trial Conference Report, have complied with all filing requirements, and have completed and filed a Trial Readiness Report.
